What recent project, transaction or accomplishment are you most proud of? Opening a new regional office and helping guide a company's success, while attracting new industry talent, is an incredibly rewarding challenge that I am proud to have undertaken. In six months, we have already established the Westchester regional office and secured work with three new clients. Major, high-quality, regional institutions like the New York Blood Center, New York Presbyterian Hospital and Kellenberg Memorial High School have already put their trust in Consigli.

What makes this nominee an Industry Leader? "Bill attracts talent with his warm smile, subtle Scottish accent, and humility. He makes each person he encounters feel highly valued both in and outside of the workplace." - Jennifer Freeman, Managing Director at Group PMX.
