

2023 Women in CRE: Krista Patterson, Robinson & Cole LLP

September 26, 2023 - Spotlights

Krista Patterson
Partner

What recent project, transaction, or accomplishment are you most proud of? One recent accomplishment is my representation of a major banking client in the closing of three large loan securitizations to date this year, with at least four additional securitizations scheduled to close before year-end. In these complex transactions, I coordinate closely with co-counsel and other transaction counsel and manage a team of attorneys in performing real estate due diligence and transaction documentation.

Who inspires you most? What qualities do they possess that inspire you? Rhonda Tobin, Robinson+Cole's Managing Partner and the first woman to hold that position. She is a highly competent and empathetic leader.

Why should this nominee be recognized in our Women in Commercial Real Estate Spotlight? "Krista Patterson is a highly valued young leader in Robinson+Cole's Real Estate + Development Group in New York. Her specific experience, drive and expertise in affordable housing lending have made her essential to the work we do for our private and public lending clients in this space." - Matthew Lawlor, Partner and Chair of the Real Estate + Development Group at Robinson & Cole LLP.

What are the most important factors women in your industry should consider when choosing a firm to build their career with? Factors to look for include women in leadership roles and a support network for the development of women attorneys.
