Now in its 128th year, The REBNY Annual will bring together the real estate industry, public officials, and other stakeholders for a night of celebration, unmatched networking, and a world-class culinary experience. Honorees will be seated at the historic REBNY dais alongside a select group of the city's most influential leaders. They will receive the industry's most prestigious awards in a ceremony that will take place during the event's formal dinner, as REBNY recognizes their commitment and contributions to New York City and its residents.

"Our honorees represent the very best of New York," said REBNY president James Whelan. "I am excited to join so many distinguished guests in January to recognize these truly remarkable men and women for the indelible impacts they have made on our great city.”
