

Arc'teryx leases 3,900 s/f store at Olshan Properties The Gate at Manhasset

October 17, 2023 - Long Island

Manhasset, NY The Gate at Manhasset (The Gate) said that Arc'teryx has opened a new location at the center. The new Arc'teryx store occupies a 3,900 s/f space between lululemon and the new Natuzzi furniture store.

Arc'teryx is a Canadian high-performance design company that specializes in technical equipment and apparel for climb, trail and snow. The new store at The Gate represents the company's fifth retail location in New York state, as the brand continues to expand globally.

"With an exciting blend of upscale retail centrally located in one of the region's most affluent markets, The Gate at Manhasset has evolved into a preferred destination for luxury shopping," said Ken Marshall, senior vice president of commercial assets at Olshan Properties. "We have welcomed many exciting new retail tenants to The Gate over the past two years, making Arc'teryx another excellent addition to our prominent lineup of retailers."

Positioned along the town's Miracle Mile, The Gate at Manhasset is a destination for open-air shopping on Long Island. The property is located 1.5 miles north of I-495, near the corner of Northern Blvd. and Searingtown Rd.

"We're excited to open our doors to our latest New York location at The Gate at Manhasset," said Megan Cheesbrough, vice president North America retail at Arc'teryx. "Community is at the heart of Arc'teryx. Throughout the last few years, we've seen continued enthusiasm from the local community as we have grown our presence throughout the state. This new location will bring expert product knowledge, outdoor learning opportunities and community events right into the heart of Long Island."

Along with Arc'teryx, The Gate has welcomed several retail tenants, including Nike, electric car manufacturer Lucid and Natuzzi furniture that opened in early August 2023.
