

Walker, Mannings, Huang and Foster join Moritt Hock & Hamroff

November 14, 2023 - Long Island

Marc Hamroff

Garden City, NY Moritt Hock & Hamroff (MHH) has added four attorneys across three of its offices. George Walker joins as counsel and Amber Mannings and Jessica Huang join as associates in the firm's litigation and dispute resolution practice groups, while Brady Foster joins the firm's secured lending practice group as an associate. Walker and Mannings are located in the firm's Fort Lauderdale office, Huang in the New York City office and Foster in the Garden City office.

"My partners and I are excited to add these four very talented attorneys to our highly experienced and growing team," said Marc Hamroff, managing partner. "Their additions further strengthen these important practice areas while demonstrating our continued commitment to client satisfaction."

Walker concentrates his practice on complex commercial litigation. He has prosecuted and defended against complex theories of liability from pleading to verdict, litigated and appealed novel issues, and coordinated complex and sophisticated e-discovery efforts. Walker also has substantial experience litigating contested bankruptcy issues and arbitrating cases brought before the AAA and FINRA. Prior to joining MHH, Walker was with the firm of Tripp Scott, P.A. in Fort Lauderdale.

Mannings concentrates her practice on all facets of commercial litigation including deceptive trade practices, securities laws violations, investor fraud, healthcare, and partnership disputes. While in law school, Mannings served as a judicial intern to the honorable Donald Graham and the honorable Kathleen Williams, both of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida.

Huang concentrates her practice on all aspects of complex litigation matters. Prior to joining MHH, she served as a law clerk to the honorable Andrea Masley of the New York Supreme Court, commercial division. Huang also previously served as a judicial intern to the honorable Esther Salas of the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey.

Foster concentrates his practice on all facets of commercial real estate lending and secured transactions. Prior to joining MHH, he served as an associate in the commercial lending group at Certilman Balin.

Prior to attending law school, Foster served in the U.S. Army as a paratrooper in the 173rd Airborne division.