Jason has spearheaded amassing a large portfolio in Long Island in particular large developments in downtown Riverhead N.Y.

What recent project, transaction, or accomplishment are you most proud of?

Particularly the purchase of five properties that includes laundromats that we will operate.

Who inspires you most? What qualities do they possess that inspire you most?

My father Stephen Breitstone who is an accomplished tax lawyer. He has amazing qualities of hard work, honesty, determination and thinking out side the box.
