What was your greatest professional accomplishment or most notable project, deal, or transaction in 2023? “With gratitude, optimism is sustainable”. This daily manifestation is the bridge to our firm’s success in 2023, personally and professionally. I am grateful to our incredible team of professionals at SPECTOR who pride themselves on their creative prowess and technical execution. I am grateful to our clients around the world who have instilled their trust in us to deliver, day after day, the very best of ourselves and setting new benchmarks for quality of design and service. I am grateful to my beautiful family who bring absolute joy into my life every day. When you “get” to do something and not “have” to everyday, joy and purpose are fulfilled and yes, optimism is sustained.
