

2024 Ones to Watch Rising Stars: Joe Maranino, CM&B

February 27, 2024 - Spotlights

Joe Maranino
Senior Project Manager

“Two years ago, Joe expressed interest in transitioning from superintendent to project manager. Despite my initial doubts, Joe’s transition has been tremendous. His ability to grasp project management concepts after a field career is exciting. Joe’s attention to detail, financial acumen, dedication to clients, and construction knowledge make him a high-performing project manager. I’m proud of Joe’s work and look forward to his continued success at CM&B.” - Steve Malenchini, SVP/Operations Manager – Boston & NY at CM&B.

How do you balance your rising career with your personal life? Work-life balance is difficult, especially with a wife and three kids at home. My work and life responsibilities are ever-changing and growing, so I plan, prioritize my workload, and manage my time never to have to sacrifice one for the other.

Who are the key people in your life that have contributed to your success? Having been in the construction industry for 15 years, there are so many people who have played a crucial role in my career. However, core values and a good work ethic were instilled in me at an early age and stayed with me forever - I can thank my parents for that.
