Andrew Ebersbach
Special Counsel

Fried, Frank, Harris, Shriver & Jacobson LLP

“Andrew aided the client in analyzing the thicket of complexities in a transaction with multiple options and complicated joint venture issues in a massive development project.” - Lee Parks, Partner at Fried, Frank, Harris, Shriver & Jacobson LLP.

Beyond your professional achievements, what are some of your passions or hobbies?

I enjoy traveling to new cities to experience their local food, from fine dining to street food.

Who are the key people in your life that have contributed to your success?

My wife, Dana, has been supportive throughout my legal career. A professional therapist, she is a terrific listener.

How do you balance your rising career with your personal life?

Communication is key. I communicate with my colleagues, clients and family to ensure there are no surprises.

Outside of your career, where? else do you seek continuous learning and personal growth??

Teaching the next generation of real estate attorneys and other professionals is very rewarding. I speak at Columbia on joint ventures, host CLE classes and provide one-on-one mentoring to Fried Frank associates.
