Beyond your professional achievements, what are some of your passions or hobbies? Cooking is my passion and hobby, inspired by my mom and grandma’s skill. It’s a way to unite people and offers a meditative, focused escape, reflecting my love for both the art and the community it creates.

Outside of your career, where else do you seek continuous learning and personal growth? Outside my career, I actively pursue learning in cutting-edge technology fields like AI and crypto. Embracing curiosity, I avoid dismissing new innovations as mere fads and constantly seek ways to stay informed, ensuring I’m at the forefront of technological advancements.
