Tim Shaw

Newark, NJ Alban Construction, LLC., has promoted Tim Shaw to the position of senior project manager, effective immediately. With a Bachelor of Science degree in Mechanical Engineering from Lafayette College and four years of dedicated service at Alban Construction, Shaw's advancement signifies the company's commitment to recognizing and nurturing talent within its ranks.

Shaw joined Alban Construction four years ago as a project manager, where his skills and technical expertise quickly made a significant impact on project outcomes and client satisfaction. His promotion to senior project manager is a testament to his hard work, dedication, and ability to consistently deliver results.

Tammy Smith, executive vice president of Alban Construction, expressed her confidence in Tim's capabilities, said, "Tim has become an integral part of our team, and clients know and love his technical approach. There isn't a complicated project that he won't be able to figure out." This sentiment reflects Alban Construction's confidence in Shaw's leadership and problem-solving skills, which are vital assets in managing complex construction projects.

As senior project manager, Shaw will continue to uphold Alban Construction's standards of excellence, ensuring the successful execution of projects and maintaining strong relationships with clients and stakeholders.
