

Martielli joins Twomey Latham as special counsel

April 16, 2024 - Long Island

Marina Martielli

Riverhead, NY Marina Martielli has joined Twomey, Latham, Shea, Kelley, Dubin & Quartararo, LLP as special counsel. She concentrates her practice in civil litigation, land use and zoning, divorce and family law, real estate and estate litigation.

Martielli has experience in a wide variety of general civil litigation, transactions and appeals. Her practice includes contracts, real estate transactions and litigation, matrimonial actions and family court matters and surrogate's court practice.

She is admitted to practice before the U.S. District Courts, Southern and Eastern Districts. She is also a member of the Suffolk County Bar Association.

Martielli earned a Bachelor of Arts degree (summa cum laude) from Long Island University and a Juris Doctor from the University of Maryland.

"I am pleased to become a part of this wonderful firm," Martielli said. "I look forward to making a contribution to the firm, whether it's navigating family law or real estate matters or litigation as the matter requires."

"We are proud to welcome Marina to the firm," said John Shea, senior partner, Twomey, Latham, Shea, Kelley, Dubin & Quartararo, LLP. "With her diversified experience and knowledge in litigation, divorce and family law, real estate and estate litigation, she will be an integral part of this firm as we continue to grow our practice."
