Manhattan, NY Co-founding partner of Schwartz Sladkus Reich Greenberg Atlas LLP (SSRGA), Steven Sladkus, has accepted an invitation to become a fellow of the American College of Real Estate Lawyers (ACREL).

ACREL is the preeminent national association of commercial real estate lawyers who are focused on service to clients, colleagues, and the profession. Admission is by invitation only after a screening process. ACREL's nationally known lawyers have been elected to fellowship for their legal ability, experience and high standards of professional and ethical conduct in the practice of real estate law.

"I am very honored to be inducted into this prestigious organization composed of the top real estate attorneys in the country," Sladkus said.

A practicing lawyer for three decades, Sladkus represents clients in all aspects of real estate-related litigation. He regularly handles various construction, general commercial, and corporate law cases, as well as the defense of discrimination claims. He provides both general counsel and litigation services to boards governing condominiums and cooperatives in the New York City metro area.
