

Twomey Latham elevates Reichert to partner

June 11, 2024 - Long Island

Martha Reichert

Riverhead, NY Twomey, Latham, Shea, Kelley, Dubin & Quartararo, LLP has elevated Martha Reichert to the role of partner. She joined the firm in 2020 as an associate.

In addition to being partner, Reichert is co-chair of the firm's land use and zoning group. She has experience in handling complex commercial and residential land use, zoning, environmental, and real estate matters on the North and South Forks. She also handles civil litigation related to her practice area, including Article 78 challenges to administrative decisions and real property proceedings involving title, adverse possession and easement issues.

Prior to joining Twomey Latham, Reichert served as an assistant town attorney for the town of Southampton, where she was counsel to the conservation board and the town trustees. Reichert is a member of the Suffolk County Bar Association and the vice president of the Montauk Historical Society. She earned her Juris Doctor from Brooklyn Law School and her Bachelor of Arts degree (summa cum laude) from Hunter College.

"I am honored to be made a partner with the firm," Reichert said. "My new position will allow me to further develop the firm's zoning and land use practice."

"We congratulate Martha on her partnership with the firm," said John Shea, senior partner, Twomey, Latham, Shea, Kelley, Dubin & Quartararo. "Because of her extensive experience and knowledge, she provides our clients with outstanding counsel and representation. She is a wonderful addition to our partnership."

New York Real Estate Journal - 17 Accord Park Drive #207, Norwell MA 02061 - (781) 878-4540