

Vestra Advisors partners with Heka Advisors

June 25, 2024 - Design / Build

Manhattan, NY Vestra Advisors, a NY-based boutique advisory firm rooted in the construction and housing ecosystem, celebrated its one-year anniversary and the formation of a partnership with London-based Heka Advisors that will expand its geographic reach across Europe. Vestra was founded in June 2023 to serve a segment of the construction and housing sector that was previously underserved by existing boutique and bulge bracket firms. Vestra prides itself on providing a differentiated, relationship-based approach in serving its clients.

Heka Advisors is an advisory boutique providing high-level, independent, conflict-free strategic and tactical advice to companies in the building products sector – which presents an opportunity for both firms to expand their exposure across North America and Europe to serve their respective clients with cross-border transactions. Vestra and Heka are aligned in the market segments they serve and the approaches they take to working with clients in these sectors.

Since its formation, Vestra has advised on a number of the highest-profile and transformative transactions within the industry, including Sekisui House's $4.9 billion business combination with MDC; Smith Douglas Homes Corp.'s $162 million IPO; Zonda's acquisition of Builders Digital Experience; and Landsea Homes' $232 million acquisition of Antares Homes.
