August 13, 2024 - Owners Developers & Managers

Greenburgh, NY Professional Women in Construction New York's annual golf outing at St. Andrews Golf Club in Hastings-on-Hudson was a great success, with more than 180 attendees. PWC-NY members and guests enjoyed a day of golf and connected with industry peers as they supported PWC, a nonprofit that advances and encourages women and promotes diversity within the architecture, engineering, construction and related industries.

"The generosity of our golf outing sponsors and event participants helps us to continue to provide important AEC industry professional development panel discussions, networking events, and mentorship programs. We were also pleased to have so many people participate in the raffle and silent auction, which directly supports our scholarship fund for students," said Gina Rivera, executive director, PWC NY.

The PWC annual golf outing sponsors include:
