Jeanine Floyd

Stephen Millington

Manhattan, NY Rosenberg & Estis, P.C. promoted two attorneys. Jeanine Floyd has been elevated from counsel to member, and Stephen Millington has been promoted from associate to counsel.

Floyd has risen through the ranks at Rosenberg & Estis, P.C., since first joining the firm as an attorney in 2007. For over a decade, she has provided daily guidance to managers and landlords of commercial and residential properties. Floyd represents landlords, owners, management companies, lenders and condominium boards with respect to legal matters pertaining to landlord-tenant law, general litigation, mortgage foreclosure and condominium lien foreclosure actions.

Floyd graduated from Yale University in 2004 with a B.A. in History and received her J.D. from Fordham Law School.

Since joining Rosenberg & Estis, P.C., in 2020, Millington has emerged as one of the most accomplished young attorneys at the firm. He has achieved success while taking the lead on a series of real estate transactions, including retail transactions and rollouts for major brands in malls, lifestyle centers, and stand-alone stores. Representing landlords and tenants alike, he advises on all aspects of transactions involving office, retail, industrial and ground leases of class A properties.

Millington received a B.A. in Government from Dartmouth College in 2011 and his J.D. from New York University School of Law in 2014. Before joining Rosenberg & Estis, P.C., he was an associate with Winston & Strawn, LLP.

“We are incredibly fortunate to have a team of exceptional attorneys providing superior real estate law services to clients navigating an increasingly complex environment,” said Rosenberg & Estis managing member Michael Lefkowitz. “The skill and expertise of these two attorneys is a tremendous benefit to our clients, and we congratulate them on their new positions.”
