

2024 Women in CRE: Michelle Samaroo, BEB Capital

September 24, 2024 - Spotlights

Michelle Samaroo
Senior Director of Accounting
BEB Capital

What recent project, transaction, or accomplishment are you most proud of?

I'm most proud of the role I played in BEB Capital's programmatic joint venture with Rockpoint Group, a partnership announced in late 2021 targeting an investment pipeline of up to $1 billion of industrial assets in the Northeastern US.

Who inspires you most? What qualities do they possess that inspire you?

Throughout my 22 years at BEB Capital, it's been the collective impact of numerous individuals rather than a single person that have both inspired me and shaped my career. Working at BEB Capital has provided me with extensive exposure to a wide array of real estate projects, deals and transactions facilitating continuous learning and development. In summary, I would say that the entire BEB Capital team has been an inspiration to me and have been a driving force in my career growth.
