Manhattan, NY Time Equities, Inc. (TEI), has promoted Max Pastor to chief operating officer.

“I was fortunate to have the opportunity to begin my professional career at TEI, joining originally as a legal intern in 2002, and to continue my professional career at TEI when I rejoined in 2015. Working at TEI in multiple capacities, I learned an enormous amount about real estate, investing, and philanthropy from TEI’s founder Francis Greenburger, Robert Kantor, and the entire TEI team,” said Pastor. “As I step into this new role, I look forward to collaborating with very talented colleagues to continue to contribute to TEI’s growth, serving our stakeholders, expanding our entrepreneurial platform, and further cultivating an environment of opportunity first created by Francis Greenburger.”

“This announcement is part of our long-term strategic planning and a result of the significant growth of Time Equities,” said Francis Greenburger, CEO & chairman of TEI. “Max’s passion and commitment to TEI’s success are integral to our future.”

In addition to his new role as COO, Pastor will continue to lead a national investment, acquisitions, and asset management team. He also serves on TEI’s Executive Committee and acts as a registered principal of Time Equities Securities LLC (a FINRA-licensed broker dealer).

With over two decades of real estate experience, Pastor has been actively engaged in various aspects of the commercial real estate industry, including acquisitions, dispositions, financings, leasing, ground-up development, and the structuring of joint ventures and partnerships -- skills he first developed early in his career as a real estate attorney.

Pastor received his B.A. from The Ohio State University and his J.D. from the Yeshiva University, Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law. He is a member of the New York and Florida bars and holds Series 22, 63, and 39 licenses. Max serves on the Board of Trustees and Executive Committees of Art Omi, Inc., Art Omi Pavilions @Chatham, Inc. and The Francis J. Greenburger Foundation.
