Middletown, NY According to Orange Bank & Trust Company, an economic engine of New York's Hudson Valley for more than 132 years, they will expand its reach in the Bronx in 2025 with a new full-service branch at 3485 E. Tremont Ave. in the Throggs Neck Business Improvement District.

The new office, scheduled to open in the second quarter of 2025, signifies the Bank's steady growth over the last several years and will support its efforts to serve its current and potential client base in the Bronx. The branch will offer a complete range of banking and financial services that emphasize commercial lending, cash management, and wealth management services.

This is the bank's second Bronx location, with the first opening in 2021 in Morris Park. The Throggs Neck office is two blocks from the Bruckner Expressway, making it centrally located and easily accessible, and has on-site parking.

"This expansion reflects our commitment to empowering local businesses with the resources, expertise and financial solutions they need to grow and thrive," said Michael Gilfeather, president and CEO of Orange Bank & Trust Company. "The Bronx is home to a dynamic business ecosystem, and we look forward to continuing to be a trusted resource that helps drive economic success in the borough and the broader region."
