

CPC appoints Ronald Schiferl as new CFO

November 28, 2008 - New York City

The Community Preservation Corp. (CPC), a non-profit affordable housing lender, has named Ronald Schiferl, 52, as CFO. In his new role, Schiferl will be responsible for providing overall finance management for the corporation and its for-profit development arm, CPC Resources, Inc. (CPCR), encompassing all accounting and treasury functions.

Schiferl has more than 30 years of experience in the financial services industry. Before joining the CPC, Schiferl served as COO of Naterra Land, Inc., a position he held for two years. Prior to joining Naterra Land, he worked at Opus Corp. for eight years as a senior vice president and CFO where he was responsible for overseeing all architecture and engineering services, accounting, internal audit, finance, information technology and human resources.
