

Ross of Largo Capital secures $57 million financing of condo building

February 25, 2025 - National News

Vancouver, BC Kevin Ross, managing director at Largo Capital Limited, secured a permanent first mortgage to finance the acquisition of the retail/commercial podium of a luxury condo building. The property features a net leasable area of 81,638 s/f across 3 stories, forming the base of a 32-story commercial and residential building. Strategically positioned in downtown Vancouver's retail hub, the asset boasts 190 feet of high-street retail frontage and direct access to the Granville SkyTrain station.
