

Receive a full year of access to rejournal.com's find financing fast

January 27, 2009 - Front Section

We are pleased to provide this special offer to the visitors of our websites and the readers of our real estate journals. There are now more than 120 quality professional financial sources enrolled in our proven find financing service. To find the one or ones that fit your criteria there is a nominal fee of $39.50 for a full year of access to the service with unlimited searches that will locate the loan you are seeking.

The service allows you to choose the amount of financing you are looking for, the State you are looking for financing in, the type of property/land you are looking to finance and if there is a specific transaction structure you would like to use.

Once you submit your choice a list of at least one and up to five companies will match your search criteria and you can either contact them by phone or via email by using our "direct connect" email form.

Go to www.rejournal.com/ne/sections/finance/signin.aspx for N.E. or www.rejournal.com/ny/sections/finance/signin.aspx for N.Y. and fill out the form to find financing fast. Alternatively, you can access the finance section from the "find financing" banner on the left side of the N.E., N.Y. and N.J./PA homepages and also from the "find financing" link in the "properties" tab in the dropdown menu at the top of every page on the site.

Upon submitting the form an email will be sent to the email address you provided with a numeric code that will be your password. Your 'full year' of access to the service begins when you first enter your email address and the numeric code to sign in to the find financing program and begin using the service.

The goal of the find financing service is to provide a convenient way of connecting borrowers with lenders thus giving our visitors and readers an easy way to find financing.
