What do you do now and what are you planning for the future? I am in charge of all the marketing and business development tasks at Cubellis, an integrated, multidisciplinary design firm offering architectural, interior design and engineering services to a diverse base of national and international clients. The firm's practice area expertise includes retail and mixed use, workplace solutions, residential, academic, hospitality and government/municipal. In this challenging economy I plan to plant even more seeds, expand my firm's client portfolio and strengthen my current relationships to the fullest.

Hobbies: Traveling, skiing, scuba diving and drama

Favorite books: Books by Latin American writers: Isabelle Allende and Gabriel Garcia Marquez

Favorite movies: Adventure films like James Bond and Indiana Jones

Key to success: To attain your goals, make lists of what you need to achieve for this whole year, then for each month, week and day. This will help you keep focused, organized and manage your time wisely.

If you had to choose another vocation what would it be: An actress on Broadway
