

Marcus & Millichap recognizes Kunofsky as the firm's top investment specialist nationwide

March 06, 2009 - Front Section

According to Marcus & Millichap Real Estate Investment Services, Glen Kunofsky has been named the firm's top investment specialist of 2008. Kunofsky, a senior VP investments, also ranked as the firm's top listing, retail and single-tenant investment specialist. He facilitated transactions valued at $260 million last year.

"We are proud to recognize Glen as the firm's top investment specialist," said Harvey Green, president and CEO of Marcus & Millichap. "Glen's tremendous transaction expertise, unrivaled market knowledge and total commitment to client service make him our top agent for 2008 and our top retail investment specialist for the third consecutive year."

Kunofsky joined Marcus & Millichap in June 2001 and was promoted to senior VP investments in August 2008. He is a senior director of the firm's National Retail Group and its Net Leased Properties Group.

Some of Kunofsky's transaction highlights from last year include: a $25.5 million single-tenant industrial sale/leaseback in Sandusky, Ohio; a $17.5 million portfolio sale; and the sale of several properties on behalf of numerous institutional and publicly traded clients.
