

Meet the Tenant-In-Common Association Members: Gary DeSanto

April 14, 2009 - Financial Digest

Gary DeSanto joined DeSanto Realty Group (DRG) in 1993, serving as CEO since 2000. When DeSanto first came aboard the family business, he initially took on management of the rental properties and development of a growth strategy. In 2002, DeSanto identified the enormous opportunity presented by Tenant-in-Common (TIC) transactions. He began using his real estate expertise to identify desirable properties that would make attractive opportunities for TIC investors. Under DeSanto's leadership, DRG expanded its management and finance infrastructure to maximize on the growing TIC industry, and today the company is widely regarded as a leader in the market.
