

Holzman joins Prudential Douglas Elliman as the office manager of Great Neck

April 24, 2009 - Front Section

Mona Holzman has joined Prudential Douglas Elliman area office as office manager. With over two decades of experience as a Realtor, Holzman is recognized as a local expert, with exceptional customer service skills and an untiring work ethic.

Holzman graduated with honors from NYU with a master of arts, and has since become a real estate industry expert and a consistent multimillion dollar and top office producer. She currently serves as president of the Nassau North Shore chapter of the L.I. Board of Realtors and is a member of the New York Association of Realtors and National Association of Realtors. She is also a senior real estate specialist and certified buyer representative. As past-president of the Great Neck chapter of Hadassah, she has received numerous awards and honors, including Woman of the Year.

"Mona has extensive leadership experience and an impressive list of talents and achievements," said Dottie Herman, president and CEO of Prudential Douglas Elliman. "I am very happy to have her heading our terrific Great Neck office."
