

SEDC holds breakfast meeting on April 23

May 11, 2009 - Upstate New York

The Saratoga Economic Development Corp. (SEDC) held an informational breakfast on April 23. The meeting focused on how SEDC can give owner's sites and buildings national exposure and how to get "Shovel Ready." The guest speakers included: Shaun Donnelly, from Evince Corp., who provided the sites and building website demonstration; Jim Jacob, from Empire State Development, who provided an overview of the NYS Build Now-NY Program; and Linda Hill, economic developer from National Grid, who provided an overview of the Shovel Ready Infrastructure program.
