

Consolo of Prudential Douglas Elliman presents Founder's Award at AREW luncheon

July 10, 2009 - Front Section

The Association of Real Estate Women (AREW) held their members-only luncheon at the Flatiron outpost, Barbounia on June 2nd.

Faith Hope Consolo, past-president of AREW and creator of the organization's Founder's Award, celebrated another successful year for the association. Consolo, chairman of the retail leasing and sales division at Prudential Douglas Elliman, commends her own company's support of women in real estate and is thrilled that the organization has enjoyed increasing membership since its inception. Consolo presented Iva Kravitaz of Marketing for Designers with the 2009 Founder's Award at the luncheon.
