

AREW Charitable Fund awards winners of first scholarships to Landers and Cabrera honoring Gross-Ginsburg, AREW founder and first president

August 21, 2009 - Front Section

The AREW Charitable Fund announced the first recipients of scholarships honoring the Association of Real Estate Women's founder and first president, Merle Gross-Ginsburg. The winners, MacKenzie Landers and Emely Cabrera, both enrolled in the graduate program of NYU Schack Institute of Real Estate.

The scholarship is being funded by proceeds from the association's 30th Anniversary Gala held in spring 2008 for which Merle Gross-Ginsburg, AREW founder and first president, served as honorary chair.
