August 24, 2009 - Long Island

The Workplace Group is committed to providing competitively priced eco-friendly products, exceptional services and personal performance that exceed our clients' expectations. It is the ultimate priority and responsibility of everyone at WPG to assure the complete satisfaction of each client; the standard by which quality and service are defined. By working with WPG, quality, functional product solutions, focused, efficient and centralized project management and excellence in service is exactly what you will receive. "Our goal is to make the process of furnishing the workplace as enjoyable & stress free as possible," said owner Mark Damico. "By anticipating all of our client's workplace needs and addressing their varied tastes with a wide variety of products, we can facilitate their projects and help alleviate some of the usual anxiety associated with a major office design project, relocation or expansion."
