September 04, 2009 - Financial Digest

Self-directed IRA custody has been PENSCO Trust Company's sole business since 1989. Chartered in New Hampshire, PENSCO Trust is uniquely focused on being the country's preferred special asset custodian for self-directed IRAs. For the past 18 years they have exclusively concentrated their services on the administration and custody of IRAs invested in non-traded assets, such as those within self directed real estate IRAs, self directed private placement IRAs, self directed Roth IRAs, SEP IRAs and Solo(k)s. Every day they renew their commitment to give clients maximum flexibility in the selection of their investments, utmost confidence in PENSCO's stewardship, and dedicated customer service at every stage of account life. PENSCO makes self directed IRA investing easy to give their clients peace of mind.
