October 09, 2009 - Financial Digest

At Failla Funding, their primary areas are Manhattan, Bronx, Brooklyn, Staten Island, Queens, Long Island, Westchester and all upstate counties of New York State. At Failla Funding, they treat all its customers like family and provide them with fast and efficient streamline financing. In their opinion, the Failla name means family and its family has been growing since 1988.

While other mortgage and real estate companies are getting out of the business, they are expanding and doing more business. To help people in need, they have added mortgage modifications, credit repair and debt settlement to their list of services.

For over 20 years their customers keep coming back and sending new customers all the time. It's a great feeling to be able to help customers in both good and bad times. Being around for so long, they are able to handle almost any situation.
