

Company Profiles: Schuckman Realty, Inc.

November 23, 2009 - Shopping Centers

Schuckman Realty Inc. (SRI) has been a leading retail real estate broker and developer of the metropolitan New York market for over 20 years. As a strategic planner of retail stores and shopping centers, SRI has been responsible for the development of shopping centers totaling over 10 million s/f. They are known for creating retail centers recognized for quality in addition to being selected by a number of "big box" national retail chains to facilitate market penetration not only in metropolitan New York but also in Atlanta, Minneapolis, Milwaukee, St. Louis, Washington D.C. and Southeast Florida.

Every market, location and deal has strengths and weaknesses. Viewing each deal as unique and analyzing its variables allows the most effective market strategy to be formalized. This creative yet quality-driven approach has been the key to SRI's success with industry leaders.
