

Meet the ICSC Member: Jeff Winick

December 04, 2009 - Shopping Centers

Jeff Winick is the founder and CEO of Winick Realty Group, a prominent Manhattan-based store leasing company. Since its establishment more than 25 years ago, the company has been expanding both its service range and geographic reach.

Having consummated over a million s/f of leasing transactions himself, Winick was able to pass his skills and passion to a team that he can be proud of. Winick Realty is a company comprised of energetic, determined, driven professionals specializing on both tenant and landlord representation with one focus: RETAIL.

With clients like Duane Reade, AT&T, and Starbucks, Winick Realty works with forerunner property owners and developers such as The Moinian Group, Tishman Speyer, Chetrit Group, The Kaufman Organization, The Related Companies, Trump Organization, and Lalezarian Developers.

Winick Realty has the flexibility and agility to stay on top of a rapidly changing market and the diligence and sophistication to create innovative, prudent real estate strategies for retailers and owners alike. Featured in many consumer and trade publications, the company keeps scoring #1 retail leasing firm of New York in The Real Deal magazine.

Winick is a member of the Real Estate Board of New York and the International Council of Shopping Centers.
