

Certilman Balin inducted into LIBI's Hall of Fame, class of 2009

December 18, 2009 - Long Island

Certilman Balin Adler & Hyman, LLP was inducted into the Long Island Builders Institute's (LIBI) Hall of Fame inaugural class of 2009. The reception took place on November 11 from 5:30 until 9 p.m. at the Hamlet Golf and Country Club.

Senior partner Ira Adler, who is a life director and member of the board of directors and the executive committee of LIBI, said, "We credit our participation in LIBI and our loyal client base for helping to make us a preeminent Long Island law firm." His partner, David Sloane, is also an active member of the Long Island Builders Institute.

For more than four decades, the attorneys of Certilman Balin Adler & Hyman, LLP have worked side-by-side with members of the Long Island Builders Institute to help build a better Long Island. From condominium developments and retail malls to industrial parks and office buildings, Certilman Balin has been a part of their plans.

LIBI will also honor its builder members Donald Eversoll (Timber Ridge Homes), Charles Mancini (Park Ridge Organization), The Monter Family (The Holiday Organization), Robert Stackler, and its associate members The Seldin Organization, and Chicago Title Insurance, and will honor posthumously, builders Andrew Monaco and Kalman Klein.
