

Kooris joins Rosewood Realty's commercial sales team as a sales broker

December 21, 2009 - Front Section

Samuel Kooris has joined Rosewood Realty Group's commercial sales team as a sales broker. He previously worked at Alchemy Properties Inc. as a real estate development intern where he helped manage residential building projects and acted as liaison between owners and contractors overseeing the timely completion of projects.

He is a graduate of Indiana University where he majored in Public Finance. As an undergrad he worked as a undergraduate teaching assistant and became involved with Indiana University's Real Estate Club. As a college student, Kooris also worked at the Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center in Boston, Mass. as a human resources and staffing intern and at the Saint Boniface Haiti Foundation in Randolph, Mass. as a public relations and marketing intern.
