

Goldstein and Marks join Marcus & Millichap as associates

January 11, 2010 - Front Section

Marcus & Millichap Capital Corp. (MMMC) has named Mark Goldstein and Christopher Marks as associate in the firm's area office, according to William Hughes, senior vice president and managing director of MMCC.

"Mark's background and experience in finance and real estate will be of great benefit to our clients in Brooklyn and throughout the New York area," said Hughes.

Prior to joining MMCC, Goldstein was an associate with Kalco Realty LLC. He also co-founded Olympus Properties.

Goldstein is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and has a bachelor's degree in engineering.

"Christopher has an excellent record of accomplishment in commercial real estate financing," said Hughes. "Our clients in Brooklyn and throughout the New York metro area will benefit greatly from his capital markets expertise."

Prior to MMCC, Marks was a senior loan officer with The Mortgage Capital Group. He has also served as a senior commercial loan officer with Velocity Commercial Capital and as the commercial area sales manager for the N.Y. and Conn. markets in the commercial lending division of GreenPoint Mortgage at Capital One Financial.
