

RKF promotes Anthony, Covey and Segall to directors

February 22, 2010 - Front Section

According to Robert K. Futterman & Associates (RKF), Izzy Anthony, Greg Covey and Brian Segall have been promoted from associates to directors.

Anthony has seven years of retail real estate experience. She has worked with leading landlords and retail tenants throughout the city.

Anthony's recent transactions in which she has been involved include the leasing of 6,644 s/f at The Crown Building to Crockett & Jones and John Richmond; the leasing of 2,800 s/f at 1036-1052 Lexington Ave. to HB Home, Second Time Around, and Alex & Lorenzo; and the leasing of White House| Black Market's SoHo flagship at 508 Broadway.

Covey, who has more than five years of retail real estate experience, specializes in landlord and tenant representation. Prior to joining RKF, Covey was the real estate manager development at Equinox Fitness Clubs, where he played an integral role in the company's site selection and expansion into new and future markets.

Among Covey's many clients are GNC and 7-Eleven, for whom he is currently working on its local expansion. Recent transactions in which he has been involved include 7-Eleven and Elevation Burger at 103 West 14th St., and GNC at 205 Eighth Ave.

Segall is a member of RKF's investment sales and advisory services division, which specializes in the sale of retail-driven assets. Prior to joining RKF, Segall was in sales with Endai Worldwide, an Internet advertising firm, where he advanced to division vice president.

Segall recently participated in the sales of the 1,634 s/f retail condominium at 135 West 14th St.; the 16,303 s/f retail condominium and 15,055 s/f garage condominium at 416-424 Washington St.; and the 2,400 s/f retail co-op at 527 Hudson St.

The country's leading independent real estate firm specializing in retail leasing and investment sales, Robert K. Futterman & Associates (RKF) serves a broad spectrum of domestic and global clients in services ranging from national tenant and owner representation to advisory, consulting and disposition. With over $9 billion in aggregate real estate transactions to its credit, RKF has been responsible for identifying scores of real estate opportunities throughout the United States for leading American and international chains, retailers, developers and institutional clients. RKF is headquartered in New York with offices in Las Vegas, Los Angeles, New Jersey and San Francisco.
