

CCIM 2010 officers inducted

February 22, 2010 - Long Island

The New York Metro CCIM chapter board of directors held a planning meeting for the 2010 year. Officers were inducted for the 2010 term.

The first planned event will be on March 26 in Manhattan. The morning session will teach Advanced excel Techniques for application in commercial real estate.

The afternoon of March 26 will be a portfolio review session. Candidates for the CCIM designation need to present a portfolio of transactions showing how they have employed CCIM skills. That session is open to all candidates, students or aspirational commercial real estate practitioners.

Subsequent events for the year will includes sessions on changing economic dynamics, adapting new technologies, investment analysis software and negotiation techniques.
