

Provident Bank opens 4,000 s/f Nyack Branch

March 19, 2010 - Front Section

Provident Bank's 4,000 s/f area branch, located at 24 North Highland Ave., is open for business. This branch offers residents a scope of services and is the bank's first branch in the town.

"We're very excited to have the opportunity to enter such a diverse, sophisticated and unique community," said George Strayton, president and CEO of Provident Bank. "Nyack is one of the most important villages in Rockland County, and a terrific place to live and do business. Its charm and sophistication continues to attract new businesses, residents and tourists alike. We are proud to be able to serve the growing population and to expand and strengthen our customer relationships. This new branch reinforces our commitment to delivering top-tier customer service at every touch point and to helping the Nyack community continue to flourish and grow."

The state-of-the-art branch provides a professional, convenient and welcoming environment for customers to do their banking and wealth management planning. The new branch also offers customers a variety of conveniences including a parking lot, two drive-thru banking lanes to accommodate peak traffic and access to 24-hour vestibule and drive-up ATMs. Additionally, the branch features plush seating, a coffee station and a kids center with TV, as well as extended service hours and seven-day banking.

New York Real Estate Journal - 17 Accord Park Drive #207, Norwell MA 02061 - (781) 878-4540